

FUSION - New version and look effective now available

Submitted by Josh on November 6, 2014 - 11:40am

A FUSION release effective November 6th, 2014 is now available

IMPORTANT: If a program required for Fusion to work properly (Framework 4.0) is missing in your computer, you will be redirected to the Microsoft website to download it. After that, you will be able to open your Fusion Illustration Software. You can always contact Merchandising Technology for assistance, if needed.

A FUSION release effective November 6th, 2014 is now available for all representatives. This update includes a new main menu completely redesigned:

- New look consistent with the Desjardins Insurance brand.
- New layout so you can see the entire Individual Insurance and Savings product offer at a glance.
- Improved content. Additional information and links to frequently accessed sections of Webi are available in the new menu. It is also possible to access the Pending Business application.
- What's New section. You can consult this section after every update to see the summary of changes in Fusion.

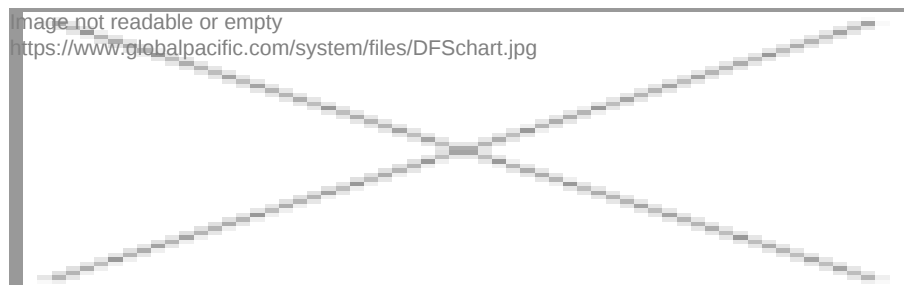

NOTE: This update may take longer than usual. In order to prevent any unusual problem, it would be important to restart your computer after the download.
